

Baviaanskloof Trail Run - Preservation of environment

Last Updated Thursday, 12 August 2010 17:22

The race passes through a World Heritage Site, one of South Africa's most important protected areas, and it is non negotiable that there is zero littering of any form.

Any runner littering the route will be disqualified and suspended from future races.